

Fall Film Screenings

Saturday, Nov. 16 @ 1p
ANNIE OAKLEY (1935)

Released amidst the headlines of her bitter front page divorce from actor Frank Fay, this film marks many changes in Stanwyck's life, including construction of her 140 acre Marwyck Ranch in Northridge, CA. and hiring Zeppo Marx to be her Hollywood agent. Runtime 1h 30 min.

Advance Reservations Required
$10

Saturday, Dec. 7 @ 1p
STELLA DALLAS (1937)

Released in August of 1937 during the construction of her Marwyck Ranch home, Stella Dallas stars Stanwyck, John Boles and Anne Shirley. For her role, Stanwyck earned the first of four lifetime Best Actress Academy Award nominations. Runtime 1h 46 min.

Advance Reservations Required
$10

Friends of Oakridge is appreciative of funding from the Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs and collaboration with the Los Angeles Department of Recreation and Parks. Please stay tuned as Friends awaits more information on the upcoming approved $800,000 treatment plan. This is a wonderful opportunity to see the Estate before restoration begins.

www.theoakridgeestate.org
(818) 739-0292
18650 Devonshire St, Northridge 91324