WHAT IS CLASS PARKS?

CLASS Parks, a youth development program in Los Angeles, provides safe, supervised spaces at 37 recreation centers for youth aged 11-17. Since 2000, it has revitalized parks and strengthened communities through education, recreation, and leadership programs. Focused on Youth Development, Park Safety, and Facility Improvement, CLASS Parks empowers youth, fosters community pride, and enhances neighborhood safety.

WHAT IS FNET?

Friday Night Extreme Teens (FNET) is a CLASS Parks program that provides a safe, fun environment for teens on Friday nights, offering activities like sports, entertainment, and social events. It gives youth a positive alternative to being on the streets and fosters community engagement.

WHY JOIN CLASS PARKS?

CLASS Parks provides youth (11-17) with a safe, supportive space to learn, grow, and connect. Offering education, recreation, and leadership programs, it builds confidence and responsibility while fostering community ties. With mentors, Teen Clubs, and partnerships like the LAPD, CLASS Parks keeps youth engaged and on a path to success.
